All That Really Matters (Maureen Hall)

G Em C G Em C D
She gives her heart to that cute boy in the corner, and they're together for a while
Em C G
Now she's pregnant, in confusion his heart wanders,
C G D
She's left along to figure out how to raise her child

(chorus)
C D G Em C G D
Life can be so Painful, but it's in that very pain, that very push and shove
C D G
Is releasing all that's shameful
Em C D Em-C-D
When all is said and done, there's no such thing as wasted love
Em C D
There's no wasted love.

He's the father of 7 children, He wants to give them everything he can
Be the shiskey claims his soul, he has no will then,
He can't hang in there he lets it go, He can't fulfill his plan

(chorus)

She never thought she'd ever live to see 90,
now in the reminiscing, she finds she has some doubts
Did she do all that she could to help society, well it's too late now, she's on her way out

(bridge)
C D
In the care, in the home, on the bus, on the phone,
Em Em C D Em
In the fun, in the groan, with a friend, all alone, All that really matters is the love
D D Em Em
Day to day, 9-5, feeling sick, feeling fine, in the heart, in the mind, everywhere, all the time
C D Em
All that really matters is the love

(chorus) … All that really matters is the love
